1	What are the specific questions we are seeking to answer/outcomes we are looking for? Where does the value to to AHDs members best lie?	The challenge is overcoming the old 'chicken & egg' scenario. Stations before vehicles, or wait for the demand. First projects likely be tied with a contracted demand. Where should service stations go? Share information on new developments in Australia & Globally to understand how markets are developing. Including funding models and SPV structures. Understand demand for hubs. Coordinated approach developing a network => Mapping of projects. What's being funded? What is being planned vs committed? Where are the gaps?
2	What does our deliverable look like and when do we deliver?	Mapping of projects in Australia => becoming a reliable source for up to date information. Report on how other countries are doing it - providing case studies. Influence reporting being done by government/consultants. Consider how to attract vehicles to the Australian market, and why type of vehicles will be in demand.
3	Who is the audience?	Internally => Provide the Infrastructure Committee what we are proposing for overall coordination. Externally => Highlighting information to AHC executive to loby Govt. How do we do this? => Ensure a mix of people representing different types of businesses are involved throughout.
4	What and When are our Milestones?	TBD
5	Who (if anyone) do we need to speak with as we proceed?	TBD
6	How often should we reconvene - what are our expectations of one	Convene once a month (telecon). Attendees to do what they committ to in
7	How do we know when we are done, including ending the working group?	TBD once we have worked out our Milestones.

Competition and Consumer Law

Compliance statement

The AHC and its members are committed to observing their Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (the Act) obligations regarding:

- communication and promotions;
- conscionable and fair business practices; and
- dealing in a manner that does not restrain competition in the marketplace.

The AHC will endeavour to minimise the risk of a breach of the Act by facilitating meetings of participants in accordance with the principles outlined below.

Compliance at meetings

While participating in AHC facilitated meetings members must take care not to do anything which may result in a breach of the Act.

Matters that in any way concern:

- prices or the costs of supply;
- competition in relevant markets;
- collective dealings with regulators and others;
- decisions to deal or not deal with sales agents; or
- dealings with consumers;

may be particularly sensitive. Where appropriate, legal advice should be obtained to ensure that a proposed

If you have any concerns regarding the implications of any issue being discussed at any meeting, please bring the matter to the immediate attention of the Chair of the meeting.
